Venice 20 June 2017

The consortium of the project ENLARGE held a dissemination event in Venice (Italy) last 20 June 2017, in the framework of the European Sustainable Energy Week.

The event gathered representatives of local authorities and civil society organisations to exchange on the added value of participatory processes in sustainable energy policies for the development of local communities.

The activity kicked off a set of 10 dissemination events to be organised until October 2018.
